

Despite the difficulties the centers are going through, the 89% has hired new professionals during the crisis and the 60% hasn't introduced any measure of employment reduction.

- In this way, despite the effects of the crisis, the number of professionals that have worked during March and April in the participating private hospitals has increased the 15% regarding April of 2018 in relation with April 2019. .

